STATEMENT REGARDING SUBSTANCE OF INTERVIEW

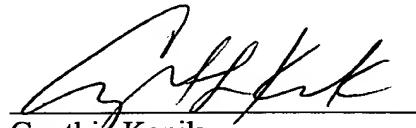

Dear Sir:

Applicants file this statement to the Interview Summary mailed from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on September 26, 2005. During the interview on September 16, 2005, Applicants discussed the draft claims which the Applicants had faxed to the Examiner on September 15, 2005, and the various options available for further prosecution.

The draft claims were generally drawn to an assay for screening small molecules which affect a desired phenotype in cells. The Examiner alleged that the specification only provided support for screening for small molecules in the context of membrane proteins. The Applicants argued that a screening assay in the context of membrane proteins was meant to be exemplary and that the specification as-filed was not limited to membrane proteins. The Examiner appeared to indicate that the draft claims will likely overcome at least the enablement rejection; however, also appeared to indicate that the Applicants might be able to overcome the remaining rejections on appeal. Accordingly, Applicants filed an Appeal Brief on October 5, 2005, on the basis of the pending claims. Applicants believe that no fee is due with the submission of this paper; however, should any fee be due, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge such fee to Deposit Account No. 12-0080 referencing Attorney Docket No. ATX-007CP4DV12.

Respectfully submitted,
